

1 simple, straight-forward question: Do you mean what you
2 say?

3 Now, if you mean that interception of communi-4 cations should not be allowed, then you vote in favor of 5 this amendment. If you want to lieave it in vague generali-
6 ties with no enforcement provisions, then you vote against 7 this amendment.

8 It is up to you to decide whether you are opposed 9 to invasions of privacy. It is up to you to decide whether 10 you are opposed to wiretapping.

11 If you are opposed to wiretapping and you want 12 to see the wiretapping ban carried out, then you vote in 13 favor of this amendment.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Does any other delegate desire to 15 speak in opposition to the amendment?

16 Delegate Willoner.

17 DELEGATE WILLONER: Mr. Chairman, I wish to 18 speak in opposition to this amendment. I wish to point out
19 several things that differ in this amendment from the present
20 state of the law.

21 First, the Weeks case provides for exclusion of
