

1 this question:

2 Delegate Case, suppose you go before a judge
3 that you know could be somewhat partial and who calls
4 ladies by their first name, and says, "Come up, Helen,"
5 or "Joanie," or something. In many instances we have 6 judges who sit on a bench where people would pay a fine in
7 order to get out of going before him because of his dis-
8 courtesy. Is it possible to ask for another judge?
9 Sometimes we want to get away from the judge we have, be-
10 cause all of them are not the same.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: The question is hardly relevant
12 to the amendment, but it might save us time to have Dele-
13 gate Case answer it.

14 DELEGATE CASE: Delegate Koger, as I understand,
15 we will have later on a provision that deals just with this
16 subject, namely the removal of cases, and at that
17 time I believe you will find the committee has recommended
18 an absolute right of removal in civil cases, and qualified
19 in criminal.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the question?

21 Delegate Vecera.
