The daily Calendar and Agenda in the format/is its adoption on all desks, and I move the acceptance of the format.

Is there a second? THE PRESIDENT: Any discussion? Are you ready for the question? All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. It is so ordered. have it. The next item of business is the report of other standing committees. I don't believe there are any. If not, we will move on to the next item, introduction and first reading of proposals. Before we do that, I would like to make a comment by way of explanation. In an effort to speed up the process of getting to the delegates copies of the proposals as soon as possible, we have determined to reproduce them; that is, to make the multilith copies before they are actually read across the desk. This will enable you to have them more readily, and normally you will have them on your desks at the time they are first introduced. This poses a slight problem in that it is always possible, of course, that they will be introduced and at the last minute the delegate may decide not to offer. I think we can take care of that situation if it arises.
