

1 consternation by that department. When they found out
2 what it was all about, they removed any question about it.
3 The city of Baltimore has no fear with respect to what
4 this might do to them.

5 I respectfully urge that you reject this
6 amendment and bring this new modern concept into our
7 declaration of rights to protect our people by this
8 additional means.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any delegate desire to speak
10 in favor of this amendment?

11 Delegate Macdonald.

12 DELEGATE MACDONALD: I would like to speak in 13 favor of the amendment, but before that, could I ask the 14 committee chairman a question?

15 THE CHAIRMAN: His time has expired. You may
16 speak and if he has the right to take the floor again,
17 you may address a question to him.

18 DELEGATE MACDONALD: Fellow delegates, I
19 agree with Delegate Gilchrist in everything he has said
20 in regard to this amendment.

21 This changes the law of condemnation appreciably,