4 THE CHAIRMAN: The pages will please distribute 5 Amendment L.

6 DELEGATE BOTHE: The language suggests
7 the absolute bare bones minimum statement of right. It is 8 language similar to that contained in the Constitutions
9 of Hawaii, Missouri, New Jersey, and New York. In the 10 case of New York, both the current and the proposed Consti-
11 tution.

12 It would assure the fundamentals of employee
13 rights. It is no labor bill of rights. It is simply a bare 14 bones statement of the very fundamental relationship that 15 should be guaranteed by the Constitution to the working 16 people of the State that they be entitled to organize
17 and to bargain collectively.

18 It does not require that any agreement be reached.
19 It merely keeps the channels of communication open between 20 employer and employees and assures a degree of democratic 21 give and take in the industry of this state, something
