

1 regulatory statutes regarding state employees, municipal
2 employees, employees of institutions of the State,
3 et cetera.

4 DELEGATE BOTHE: You mean that the State would 5 not be able to pass any laws or make any regulations or 6 statutes? I am sure you are a better lawyer than 7 to be asking that seriously.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Weidemeyer.

9 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: My question was, is it
10 not true that the word "employees" in line 8 is so all-
11 inclusive without qualification that if placed in the Consti-
12 tution it would prohibit the State Legislature from making
13 any regulatory legislation regarding municipal and state
14 employees and employees of State institutions or quasi-
15 state institutions.

16 DELEGATE BOTHE: I cannot see where that would 17 follow at all. Of course, the State subdivisions would 18 continue to pass laws and make regulations and control
19 the terms and conditions.

20 As a matter of fact, all this proposal would 21 do would say that where the employees of the State wanted
