

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

2 DELEGATE BOTHE: Delegate Maurer, are you refer-
3 ring to the Baltimore Teachers?

4 DELEGATE MAURER: The state law which Delegate
5 Miller mentioned which, as she phrased it, indicated that 6 this resolved the problem and I am saying it still leaves
7 open -- raises the question whether it does not still leave
8 open the very problem I raised with you initially about 9 recognition.

10 DELEGATE BOTHE: We are not writing a statute
11 here as has been said. We are simply stating a right.
12 The right has some justifiable aspects to it. What they 13 are or may be is about as impossible for me to summarize
14 as it has been in the last few days for other speakers
15 trying to talk about due process and equal protection and 16 such ever-expanding and happily nebulous phrases.

17 Here again we have the statement of a basic right
18 which has all kinds of implications and connotations.
19 I would suggest to you that particularly on the basis 20 of the Missouri decision which is the only one I have 21 been able to locate, construing the right without any
