

1 DELEGATE BOTHE: Of course he can.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hutchinson.

3 DELEGATE HUTCHINSON: Could they pursue their
4 case to the court and say that he refused to allow us to
5 bargain collectively?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

7 DELEGATE BOTHE: As an attorney representing
8 all kinds of people, I have had people come to me and
9 want to go to court. You can file suit on any ground.
10 As far as the guarantee is concerned, it certainly does
11 not require employers to hire people who don't do the jobs.
12 It only forbids employers from firing them because they
13 want to organize and bargain collectively.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions?

15 Delegate Hostetter.

16 DELEGATE HOSTETTER: Just one further question.
17 The National Labor Relations Act, is it not a fact that 18 if notice is given to the employer by the employees that
19 they wish to negotiate, that no threats whatsoever can
20 be made to the employees after that particular time?

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.
