

1 something in the bill of rights for this class against 2 that class, for this individual against that individual, 3 but we decided that all questions providing for rights of 4 one individual against another individual or one class
5 against another class had no place in the bill of rights
6 of this Constitution, and that is the main reason why
7 this proposal, and many others like it or similar to it,
8 not on labor but on many subjects, were excluded from 9 our consideration.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: You have one-half minute,
11 Delegate Child.

12 DELEGATE CHILD: Another reason why it would be 13 excluded, it was brought out in the testimony before
14 our committee that this same remedy had been sought
15 time and time again from the legislature of this state, 16 without avail, and that now they wanted to force the 17 legislature to act by putting this subject in the bill
18 of rights.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Your time has expired, Delegate
20 Child.

21 DELEGATE CHILD: For those two reasons, the
