

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kiefer.

2 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. Chairman, I yield three
3 minutes to Delegate Jett.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Jett.

5 DELEGATE JETT: Mr. Chairman, fellow delegates,
6 I rise in opposition to this amendment. I think it is 7 a tremendous example of what not to put into the 8 Constitution.

9 As Delegate Child has said, we are putting in 10 here something of one class against another. As someone 11 else has spoken, if we are going to put this in, we might 12 as well put in references to the landlord and tenant,
13 borrower, lender, husband and wife, mother-in-law and son-
14 in-law.

15 This type of thing does not belong in the 16 Constitution that we are writing for all the people of this 17 state, and I should say to you again that it is not a 18 thing that should be in the Constitution because the 19 legislature has recognized it.

20 There has never been, so far as I know, one 21 single bit of anti-labor legislation put through our
