

1 case very well. There are many people who should not be 2 deprived by accident of employment of the right to 3 bargain collectively.

4 I think I would rather not indicate we are in 5 a class struggle, but I think we would have to recognize 6 the population to which this particular section may 7 have the most importance, represents a population that 8 has limited employment opportunities.

9 It also represents a population that although 10 they may have specific preferences for a particular
11 vocation, they should not be denied the right to bargain
12 collectively, to enhance or increase their earning po-
13 tential, and to have something to say about the working 14 conditions which prevail at their places of employment.

15 In a society of rapidly escalating income, it
16 is extremely important that intrastate workers have this 17 privilege and this right recognized in the Constitution 18 so that they will not find themselves in the bind of 19 the group to which Delegate Bothe referred during her 20 presentation at Church Home Hospital where although they 21 recognized certain conditions were against them, they in
