

1 association or union which can equitably represent them
2 before the state, its agencies and its political subdi-
3 visions."

4 It is apparent to me that the demand for this
5 amendment comes not from the employees of the industry
6 and the government of the state but from other sources.

7 I urge the defeat of this amendment.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kiefer, the Chair's
9 ruling went to the distribution of the letters to which 10 you refer.

11 I did not of course intend to indicate, as 12 indeed, I could not, that they could not be referred to 13 by you or any other person in the course of your debate.

14 Delegate Bothe.

15 DELEGATE BOTHE: Mr. Chairman, I yield two
16 minutes to Delegate Storm.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Storm.

18 DELEGATE STORM: Mr. Chairman, I became sold
19 on this idea back when I was in the Navy. Up until that 20 time, I came from a very conservative county where labor
21 is not understood. I was very much opposed to the idea,
