

1 dragging the old lady across the street.

2 I said, "What is the matter"? She said, "I 3 don't want to go across the street." I say to you, many 4 of these people don't want this thing in the Constitu-
5 tion. This doesn't belong here.

6 Now, Delegate Bothe explained there are four 7 constitutions out of 50 which mention this matter in 8 the Constitution. Two of them specifically spell out 9 that there is an entirely different ground rule between 10 public employees and private employees, and she has stated
11 unequivocally, this would apply down the line to all
12 employees.

13 I say to you ladies and gentlemen, this doesn't 14 apply to all up and down the line, and in those two 15 states where they made differentiations, Missouri and 16 New York, the courts held it does not apply to public
17 employees.

18 This is an action by a strong group of people, 19 me down here. I know they have their hand on your 20 shoulder. They are urging you and looking down from 21 the balcony wanting to know how you will vote, and I
