

1 America's great economic development has been 2 due to the interaction and cooperation between labor and 3 management. Our nation's strong position in the world is 4 due in largepart to organized labor, a position which 5 assures man's economic freedom and his creativity.

6 Finally, I have seen what happens when man
7 has not had these rights and it is assumed. In recent 8 years I have seen custodial and food service workers 9 move from passive interest in what they do to one where 10 they are creative, and think about what they do, to one 11 where the dignity and work of what they do is significant, 12 because they have become a part of an organized group.

13 Man acting alone in the economic realm just 14 has no possibility for success. As Robert Hutchinson said,
15 this is of Constitutional stature.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

17 DELEGATE BOTHE: Mr. Chairman,--

18 THE CHAIRMAN: You have two minutes left.

19 DELEGATE BOTHE: Am I to allot them now? I
20 understand Delegate Kiefer has reserved some time.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: The sponsor of the amendment
