

1 unanimous consent, otherwise we couldn't.

2 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I could not
3 accept that amendment. I find no difference between a 4 tort action where someone has fallen into a hole in 5 Baltimore City and breaks his or her back from the same
6 individual falling into a hole in Leonardtown and breaking 7 his or her back. I do not feel that there ought to be 8 any variation insofar as the municipalities are concerned.

9 DELEGATE CLARK: Very well.

10 DELEGATE HANSON: I suggest we are fast approach-11 ing if we have not exceeded or gone past the nadir of 12 debate on this subject in which we are piling the uncertain
13 on top of the unnecessary in an amendment we are probably 14 going to defeat anyway. It seems to me that we ought to 15 vote. (Applause.)

16 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Dulany.

17 DELEGATE DULANY: I was going to make the same 18 point.

19 DELEGATE CLARK: The question arises on the 20 amendment to the amendment which is Delegate Clagett's
21 amendment which we will call 10A and it adds the words
