

1 Courts, and jury. It does not take away any fundamental 2 right to a fair trial.

3 I urge you not to reject the amendment.

4 DELEGATE CLARK: Anyone desire to speak in 5 favor of the amendment?

6 Delegate Mitchell.

7 DELEGATE MITCHELL: I wish to apeak against 8 the amendment. We have spent almost ten days setting up
9 the physical structure for the administration of justice
10 and this section is concerned with a substantive provision 11 for the administration of justice exists only where the 12 Courts themselves have been deficient in setting up the 13 regulations of the use of this right.

14 Now, we are supposed to with this system that 15 has been presented to us, we are getting a higher quality
16 of the Judiciary, we are getting a more efficient system, 17 we are concentrating the rule making power in the Court of 18 Appeals, the highest level of the Judiciary, and it seems 19 to me that when Delegate Bamberger has said, the problems
20 he has enumerated are the problems that will be corrected
21 by this new and more efficient Judiciary and the system
