

1 judicial system and to work it out in terms of the old
2 absolute right of removal from one jurisdiction to another
3 will no longer exist. It is a matter which will have to 4 be dealt with in a unified way on a statewide basis. It 5 seems to me that this perpetuates an absolute right of 6 removal. All that is required under the first paragraph 7 is simply an affidavit without any proof as to whether the 8 trial would be fair or impartial or not. It is an absolute
9 right of removal which is perpetuated and the last sentence
10 which attempts to provide reasonable regulation would not 11 permit any limitation upon that absolute right, so I hope
12 that this amendment will be defeated.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Macdonald, you desire
14 to offer an amendment to Amendment 13?

15 DELEGATE MACDONALD: I do.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: "W"?

17 DELEGATE MACDONALD: "W".

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Will the pages please distribute 19 the Amendment W?

20 Delegate Burdette.

21 DELEGATE BURDETTE: Mr. Chairman, would the
