

1 Now, the Amendment 13-B further curtails the 2 right of removal so that it could create in effect
3 absolutely no right of removal at all. When I say that I
4 mean absolutely no right of removal for all practical
5 purposes so it naturally follows that if we adopt 13-B,
6 Delegate Scanlan is going to have one heck of an argument
7 to get up and say, I move that we eliminate 13-B because 8 that is exactly what the legislature and the courts could 9 do if we didn't have it in the first place, and because 10 I am right and because this body has said that we shall 11 have a right of removal in our Constitution, and because 12 Delegate Henderson has said. I submit that this does 13 not curtail the right of the legislature and the right of 14 the Court to regulate this right of removal.

15 I urge that we defeat 13-B, the substitute
16 amendment that is before us, and then adopt favorably
17 the motion -- that we defeat this substitute amendment 18 that is before us and then adopt by affirmative action the 19 amendment we have previously approved before the luncheon
20 break.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion on the
