

1 everywhere. I first became aware of it when I interceded
2 for a man who had broken mentally under the stresses and 3 strains of domestic problems and had to go into a mental 4 hospital for recuperation. When I interceded with the 5 steel company where he was employed, there was no longer
6 a job for him in spite of his twelve years of seniority
7 because the company, at a cost of some two million
8 dollars, had installed new machinery which would displace 9 four hundred men who had been working at that plant, and 10 I became aware then and began to give study to the whole
11 situation of the rapid advance of technology and the lag
12 in the preparation by our private sector and public sector, 13 by government and industry in the preparation of, or 14 for the social maladjustments and human maladjustments
15 which result.

16 We cannot afford another depression. I was 17 just coming out of high school in that depression, but 18 the rich people threw themselves out of windows, and the 19 poor people just starved, and the banks shut down and 20 there was no work or little work for most of the people.
21 Then our nation and our states got together and worked
