

1 to be ashamed of and I, therefore, urge the adoption of 2 this, or the rejection, pardon, the rejection of this 3 amendment.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any further discussion?
5 Are you ready for the question?

6 The Clerk will ring --

7 Delegate Schloeder.

8 DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: Mr. Chairman, I would 9 like to rise to oppose the Scanlan amendment. I rose
10 to blow on the dice a few times last evening, but I
11 think Mr. Scanlan is wrong here to attempt to delete this 12 section.

13 I am reminded of what Edmond Burke said in a 14 speech in the House of Commons on conciliation to the 15 American Colonies. He said that it is not what lawyers
16 tell me I may do, but what reason, justice, and humanity
17 tell me I should do.

18 For many of us the real history of this 19 country is the fulfillment of the promises of the 20 Declaration of Independence, a fulfillment of the promise
21 that all men are created equal. It is the life, liberty,
