

Delegate Schloeder.

DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: Mr. Chairman, I would like to rise on a point of personal privilege. I am neither a lawyer, nor certainly a tax lawyer, nor do I ever expect to have any use for a tax lawyer, but I would like at this time to dot i's and cross t's of another nature and ask the delegates to welcome to this chamber about forty-five members of an organization from Baltimore County called Forum 4. They are seated behind the rostrum and also back here.

Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delighted to have them.

(Applause.)

Delegate James Clark, do you desire to have your amendment, CL, offered at this time?

DELEGATE J. CLARK: No, sir. I would like to hold that one.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kahl.

DELEGATE KAHL: While we are recognizing people in the gallery, it is my privilege to welcome to this assembly friends of mine from Baltimore County, Mr. and Mrs. Bellich, and Bill Hassom, and my greatest friend, my mother, Mrs. Mary Kahl.

THE CHAIRMAN: We are delighted to have them.

(Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kirkland.

DELEGATE KIRKLAND: Mr. Chairman, may I introduce the really and truly head coach of my family, Mrs. Kirkland, also my neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, and their daughter Doris.

(Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the pages please distribute the Amendment CH.

Please do not distribute the amendment.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, while we are getting the next amendment, I would like to take this opportunity to announce an event I just learned of, that Delegate Lloyd Taylor has a birthday today, and is not ashamed to admit how old he is. He is a very young 42, and our hearty congratulations to him.

(Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Malkus, do you still desire to offer your Amendment CH?

DELEGATE MALKUS: Yes, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The pages will distribute amendment CM.

For what purpose does Delegate Marion rise?

DELEGATE MARION: Mr. Chairman, a point of personal privilege, because of some of the other announcements which have preceded mine, and aware that I might be reminded of my lack of attention at home were I remiss in reminding the delegates that my wife too is in the gallery, seated above the President's head.

(Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Please mark this Amendment No. 28. The Clerk will read the amendment.

READING CLERK: Amendment No. 28 to Committee Recommendation JB-1 by Delegate Malkus: On page 4 section 5.14 Nomination and Appointment in lines 39 through 50 strike out beginning with the words "appointing one person" in line 39 down to and including the letters "nees" in line 50 and insert in lieu thereof the words "appointing a person to fill the vacancy."

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would like to announce before submitting the amendment that in anticipation that someone else may have a similar thought, that it occurred to me the amendment might be out of order, since it is completely inconsistent with Amendment No. 25, which was considered and rejected and Amendment No. 24, which was adopted.

It does exactly the opposite of what is accomplished by section 5.14 as amended by Amendment No. 24. The Chair, however, feels that the amendment is in order at the present time. The amendment is moved by Delegate Malkus.

Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the amendment was duly seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment having been seconded, the Chair recognizes
