

(Whereupon, at 1:00 P.M., the Committee of the Whole rose, and the Convention reconvened.)

(The mace was replaced by the Sergeant-at-Arms.)

PLENARY SESSION

NOVEMBER 22, 1967—1:00 P.M.

PRESIDENT H. VERNON ENEY,
PRESIDING

THE PRESIDENT: On behalf of the Committee of the Whole the Chair reports it has under consideration JB-1 and requests leave for further consideration.

Any delegates who are present now who were not present this morning, please indicate your presence. The Clerk will record the supplemental roll call.

Delegate Burgess.

DELEGATE BURGESS: My button jumped off.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Burgess records himself as being present.

Before recognizing Delegate Powers, the Chair desires to inform you that as you have noticed the absence all week of Delegates E. T. Miller and Richard F. Cleveland, I have been endeavoring to find out their present condition, and I am sorry to report to you that Delegate Miller is not at all well, and I am sure that on behalf of all of us I conveyed to him through Mrs. Miller our warmest regards and best wishes.

Delegate Cleveland also is not well. He suffered another injury to his back and I do not know as yet exactly the extent of it.

Are there any committee chairmen who have to make announcements before recess? Delegate Mitchell.

DELEGATE MITCHELL: I would like to recognize the presence in the right rear gallery of a member of the Bar Association of Scotland whose husband is an intern in the Greater Baltimore Medical Center, Mrs. Derrick Bruce. She is accompanied by my daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kiefer Mitchell whose husband also is an intern in the Greater Baltimore Medical Center.

THE PRESIDENT: Glad to have them.

(Applause.)

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. Chairman, I move we recess until 2:30 P.M.

(The motion was seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Bard.

DELEGATE BARD: I move that we take one hour for lunch today only in order that there might be a greater possibility of completing the afternoon session earlier.

THE PRESIDENT: The motion was seconded.

The question arises on the motion to amend the motion to adjourn, that we have an hour for lunch, rather than an hour and a half. All in favor of the motion to amend the motion, signify by saying Aye. Contrary, No.

The Noes seem to have it. The Noes have it. All in favor of the motion to adjourn signify by saying Aye, contrary No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 1:05 P.M., the Convention was adjourned, to reconvene at 2:30 P.M. on the same day.)

PLENARY SESSION

NOVEMBER 22, 1967—2:30 P.M.

PRESIDENT H. VERNON ENEY,
PRESIDING

THE PRESIDENT: The Sergeant-at-Arms will clear the aisles and close the doors.

The Convention will please come to order. Roll call.

(Whereupon, a roll call was taken.)

DELEGATE GROH: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: For what purpose does Delegate Groh rise?

DELEGATE GROH: I rise to a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Groh, please.

DELEGATE GROH: I would like to announce that I am proud that my wife and small son are present with us today in the front balcony. Thank you.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: The Clerk will record the roll call.
