

the General Assembly, and in view of the spirit of compromise that has brought that about, I would like to invite the attention of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, to whether or not we would not do better if we were to postpone consideration of item Number 3 dealing with the state treasurer until after we had disposed of the question of the compromise dealing with the Board of Public Works, and a person to be appointed by the General Assembly?

It seems to me that that would be a very practical solution to what may become a troublesome and difficult problem.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair understood from the Chairman of the Committee on the Executive Branch that Recommendation Nos. 2 and 3, would be voted on before Recommendation No. 1 or the proposed amendment to it was reconsidered.

However, the Chair will suggest that Delegate Morgan confer with Delegate Powers and the Chairman over the lunch recess.

Are there any further announcements?

(There was no response.)

Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. Chairman, I move the Committee of the Whole rise for the purpose of taking a recess.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: All in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 1:06 P.M. the Committee of the Whole rose, and the Convention reconvened.)

(The mace was replaced by the Sergeant-at-Arms.)
