

no official name, except, of course, the elective comptroller and the elective attorney general and the elective lieutenant governor, and we thought the man to serve on the Board of Public Works with the governor, apart from the comptroller, ought to be at the complete discretion of the governor. One governor may want the head of one department, and another governor may want the head of another department.

Now, Governor Agnew recommended before our Committee that the head of the department of budget and procurement be on the Board of Public Works, or the board of review. Another governor may want the head of the fiscal affairs department of the government on the board of review.

I think this really should be left to the discretion of the governor.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the amendment of Recommendation No. 1 of Committee Report EB-1. As amended, Recommendation No. 1 would read: "The Committee recommends that a board of review be provided for in the Constitution."

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against. Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 97 votes in the affirmative, and one in the negative, the motion carries. The amendment is adopted.

The question now arises on the approval of the recommendation as amended.

Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 97 votes in the affirmative and 2 in the negative, the motion carries. The recommendation as amended is adopted.

That concludes the special order of business.

The next item on the agenda, the next general order is resumption of consideration of Committee Recommendation EB-1.

Last evening we had concluded with the adoption of Amendment No. 10. This has been reprinted in accordance with the request last evening and is on your desk.

I believe we had concluded consideration of section 4.17, but had to go back to consider an amendment to section 4.03.

Delegate Child.

DELEGATE CHILD: The amendment to section 4.03 is Mr. Chabot's amendment. At the present time, he is not here. I have every reason to believe he will be here in a few minutes. If we could go to something else—

THE CHAIRMAN: We will pass to something else.

Are there any amendments to section 4.18?

Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. Chairman, we have a Minority Report on 4.18. Delegate Boyce will present it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes Delegate Boyce to present the Minority Report EB-1.

Will you come to the reading desk, please?

Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: I have an amendment that I discussed yesterday.

THE CHAIRMAN: What section?

DELEGATE STERN: It tells what we did yesterday and it is marked, AU. I wonder if we could get to that?

THE CHAIRMAN: You did not present anything yesterday; what section?

DELEGATE STERN: It deals with the comptroller and, I guess, it would be all the items which are blank. There is no section number.
