

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I have no comment to enlighten. I can state my prejudices would be for the traditional method of using it, C-o-m-p-t.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: That would be my inclination, too, to use the spelling as existing since the Constitution of 1867, and not change the spelling at this particular time.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Dukes.

DELEGATE DUKES: I want to speak in opposition to the amendment, Mr. President.

I would like to say to Delegate Stern and Delegate Finch the only thing that impresses me more than the Women Leaguers is the Washington Post editorial on CPA's. I am certainly happy we have two of them in the delegation. Nonetheless, it seems to me that the word, Controller, applies to someone who controls something. I do not know about the WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY. As to the word, "Comptroller", nobody knows what that means and the present status of Louie's job, I think, is very appropriate. Therefore, I would urge that we retain the archaic "Comptroller".

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Della.

DELEGATE DELLA: Mr. Chairman, I would like to argue against the amendment.

Somehow or other, we have forgotten all about the public. With all the forms that have been printed, and all the nameplates that have been painted on buildings and doors, which would have to be painted over again with a new printing, I am sure it would cost in the neighborhood of about $25,000. I can understand wanting a modern constitution, but I am sure the people I represent are very much interested in $25,000 or more that would be thrown down the drain if this amendment is adopted.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Case.

DELEGATE CASE: No questions.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bamberger.

DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Would Delegate Stern yield to a question?

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bamberger.

DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Would you accept an amendment, to provide the word,

I will mispronounce it, Comptroller (Controller)?

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: I would not.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the question?

Delegate White.

DELEGATE WHITE: I wonder if Delegate Stern would yield?

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate White.

DELEGATE WHITE: As to the question of lowering the voting age to 18, would you have the same amendment?

DELEGATE STERN: How is "18" spelled, Delegate White?

THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 11 to Committee Recommendation EB-1.

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of Amendment No. 11. A vote No is a vote against. Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 19 votes in the affirmative and 84 in the negative, the motion is lost. The amendment is rejected.

Delegate Chabot, do you still desire to offer your amendment marked AQ?

DELEGATE CHABOT: Yes, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN: The pages will distribute Amendment AQ. I am sorry, the amendment was distributed yesterday. You have it. This will be Amendment No. 12. The Clerk will read the Amendment.

READING CLERK: Amendment No. 12 to Committee Recommendation EB-1, by Delegate Chabot: On page 2 Section 4.03 Lieutenant Governor in line 6 after the period, insert the following sentence:

"Authority to sign or veto bills may not be prescribed or delegated under this section."
