

tunity to make a contribution to strengthening their State; and

WHEREAS, The delegates to the Constitutional Convention of Maryland wish the delegates to the Pennsylvania Constitutional Convention the same opportunity that they have had and the same success that they are striving for; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Constitutional Convention of Maryland sends its very best wishes for success to the delegates to the Constitutional Convention now beginning in Pennsylvania; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the President of the Maryland Constitutional Convention is instructed to convey this Convention's best wishes and a copy of this resolution to the President of the Pennsylvania Constitutional Convention.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman, the Chair understands that you desire to move the suspension of rules to permit immediate consideration of this resolution.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, I should like to move that suspension.

THE PRESIDENT: And is it seconded?

Delegate Powers?

DELEGATE POWERS: I second the motion.

THE PRESIDENT: It is regularly moved and seconded that rules be suspended to permit immediate consideration by the Convention of Resolution No. 23.

Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on suspension of the rules to consider permitting immediate consideration of Resolution No. 23.

All in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Resolution No. 23 moved by Delegate Penniman and seconded by Delegate Powers is before you for discussion. The Chair recognizes Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, I think that there need be no long discussion on this. This is one where our Convention ought to give full support to another Convention concerned with the same kind of problems with which we are now concerned.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any further discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the adoption of Resolution No. 23.

All in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No.

The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Are there any other motions or resolutions?

(There was no response.)

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move the adoption of Committee Debate Schedule No. 8, which applies to the matter in the general orders involving Committee Recommendation SF-2, 3, 4 and 5.

THE PRESIDENT: Debate Schedule No. 8 has been distributed? Is it on our desk?

It is regularly moved and seconded that Debate Schedule No. 8 be adopted. Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

If not, all in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No.

The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move the Convention resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of resuming consideration of the general orders of the day.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)
