

the situation with respect to the Third Legislative District, and, therefore, though the rule requires that one session day following the President's announcement of the vacancy elapse before the selection committee can move into action, I respectfully suggest that the Convention move to suspend the rules so as to permit the selection committee required by Rule 71 [77] to begin its deliberations as soon as advised by the President that he has received the official announcement without requiring another session of layover.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair will recognize you at tomorrow's session for the purpose of making that motion and putting it before us. Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet within 15 minutes after the adjournment of this session this afternoon, and again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M., both meetings to be held in the meeting room in the Shaw House. I would also like to take this opportunity to congratulate one of the members of our committee on his birthday today, Mr. James E. Soul. Thank you. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: The Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately following this session. We will have two witnesses this afternoon, Mr. John O. Donaho, of Donaho and Associates and Mr. Charles Moylan, Jr., State's Attorney for Baltimore City. Tomorrow morning we will meet at 10:00 A.M., to hear Attorney General Burch, and various delegates, including Delegates Cardin, Soul, Henderson, who are interested in the office of Attorney General.

We will also have Mr. George Keyser, who was former Commissioner, for administration of the State of Wisconsin.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch meets immediately following this session. Unfortunately our schedule for this afternoon has been changed, and we will not consider Delegate Proposal 81, introduced by Messrs. Scanlan and Bamberger, at 3:00 P.M. today. At the request of the delegates who introduced the proposal, it has been rescheduled for Tuesday morning at 10:00 A.M. We do have the privilege this afternoon of hearing from George Warnecke of Baltimore City and tomorrow morning we are scheduled at 10:00 A.M. for hearing from Judge O'Donnell and other judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: The Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble will meet immediately after this meeting. Next week will be devoted entirely to hearings on due process. We have been required to make the change in the original published schedule to accommodate important out of town witnesses, but the new schedule will be published as soon as possible. If anybody wants a hearing on 227 we will schedule one on that day, too. A great event occurred this morning, the arrival of a grandchild to Delegate Mitchell. I am happy to announce that. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will resume hearing the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee ten minutes after the end of the session today. We will have a meeting this evening to hear some of the members of the General Assembly.

We will also meet tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M. to continue our deliberations.

THE PRESIDENT: Any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, this evening at 7:00 P.M., in the City Delegation Room at the Shaw House, and then again tomorrow morning at the same location at 9:15 A.M., the Committee on Local Government will be hearing from interested citizens who are being provided the opportunity of expressing their views on any phase of local government.

Tomorrow we are also hearing from the Mayor of the City of Bowie and from Honorable Walter S. Orlinsky, of Baltimore City.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: The Committee on State Finance and Taxation will continue its deliberations tomorrow on pending bills.
