

THE CHAIRMAN: The only safe answer the Chair could give to either of those questions is to say he does not know.

DELEGATE PULLEN: I do not think any of us knows.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does any delegate desire to speak in favor of the amendment?

Any delegate desire to speak in opposition to the amendment?

Delegate Macdonald, do you have any suggestion you want to offer?

DELEGATE MACDONALD: No, not now, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Very well.

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 1 to Committee Recommendation SF-2.

The amendment as it is now before you is as follows, and this would be substituted entirely for the language in Committee Recommendation SF-2.

"Neither the State nor the governing body of any political subdivision of the State shall operate or authorize a lottery for the purpose of financing any expenses of government."

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment as a substitution for the Committee Recommendation; a vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote? The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 69 votes in the affirmative and 60 in the negative, the amendment is adopted.

The question now arises on the approval of Committee Recommendation No. SF-2 as amended. Is there any further discussion?

Are you ready for the question? A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the Committee Recommendation as amended; a vote No is a vote against.

Cast your votes.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 101 votes in the affirmative and 29 in the negative, the motion is carried, Committee Recommendation SF-2 as amended is approved.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Case, Vice-Chairman of the Committee, to present Committee Recommendation SF-3.

Delegate Ulrich.

DELEGATE ULRICH: Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of personal privilege.

THE CHAIRMAN: State your privilege.

DELEGATE ULRICH: I would like to welcome in the balcony over the rostrum the Honorable Tyras Athey, member of the House of Delegates, his lovely daughter Darlene, and her friend Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delighted to have you.

Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of the Convention, on the point of personal privilege, I would like to relate an incident that happened in our section of the State.

In anticipation of the many complexities of this Convention, and in an attempt to obtain an accurate expression of the people, Kent County adopted something that is positively novel and to the best of my knowledge was not attempted in any other county.

We appointed in our county a Kent County Constitutional Convention Committee made up of a cross-section, an accurate cross-section, of the people. They then went out and obtained the viewpoint of the citizenry of the county.

The Kent County delegation of this Convention then sent back home, fed back home all the information we could obtain here at this Convention to the Kent County Constitutional Convention Committee so that they could work on it and advise and guide our delegation here how to vote.

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly express my appreciation to this hard-working group for the many hours they have devoted to the affairs of this Constitutional Convention for the guidance they have given this delegate.

It is interesting to note that all of the recommendations of the committee have been exactly the same as the Kent County delegate would have voted if unadvised. My point is this, Mr. Chairman, that when this finished product of the Convention is
