

J. Vecera, Chairman; Audrey Ward Cicone; Carter M. Hickman; Earl Koger, Sr.; John H. Mosner; Kathleen L. Robie, and Catherine B. Ulrich.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Rybczynski?

DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: Mr. President, would the six representatives from Baltimore City district please meet with me immediately after this meeting here at this desk, and I would recommend to the Baltimore City Delegates to read the editorial page of this morning's Baltimore Sun.

Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on Judicial Branch will meet in its usual room immediately following the meeting on the floor. Also, may I take this opportunity to remind the delegates that our meeting with the Clerks of the Court is scheduled for Monday at 1:00 P.M. It will not be held in our first floor quarters here, but in the Assembly Room on the first floor of the State Office Building, and we will welcome anyone on Monday who has an idea regarding Clerks of the Court.

Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, as announced yesterday, next week will be devoted to hearings on due process, equal protection of laws, and rights of the poor. Wednesday evening the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble has scheduled an open meeting to which the public at large are invited, that is, groups, individuals, et cetera, who wanted to express their views on this subject. However, we now of course recognize that this is the beginning of Jewish religious holidays so we have postponed that hearing from 7:30 P.M. on October 4, to Monday, 7:30 P.M., and I want to be sure that everybody who might be interested understands this. This is to be given to the press, and the hearing will take place on Monday, 7:30 P.M. Anyone who wants to express themselves on these subjects are invited. If we do not have enough time on Monday, we will continue on Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Beg your pardon, Mr. President?

THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: If I did not say, it is October 9, a week from this Monday.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet on Monday, immediately following the adjournment of the Convention. We will hear first from Delegate Henderson with respect to certain suggestions he has with respect to the office of attorney general, and we will then hear from Delegate Cardin and Delegate Soul with respect to proposals that they have introduced and have been referred to our Committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there further announcements by the committee chairmen?

Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet next at 1:00 P.M. on Monday, but I would like to remind all the delegates that we have scheduled two meetings next week, public hearings, on the subject of voting age, one Tuesday evening at 7:30 P.M. and one Wednesday morning at 9:30 A.M. Both of those latter meetings are to be held in the Baltimore City delegation room at Shaw House.

In terms of public hearings, there is scheduled a last public hearing on the 10th, which is the following Tuesday, at 9:30 A.M. on frequency of elections. However, anyone who would have liked to testify at the previous hearings is welcome at that point to present testimony.

Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet on Monday at 2:00 P.M. The only unusual announcement that we have to make is that we have decided to hear from the professional lobbyists who represent various interests in the General Assembly and we will hear them on Friday the 13th of October.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there further announcements?

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. President, the Committee on General Provisions will continue and finish, terminate its hearings on