

mendation S&E-2 in the form submitted. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of Amendment No. 8. A vote No is a vote against. Cast your votes.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 80 votes in the affirmative and 44 in the negative, the motion carries. The amendment is adopted.

There are apparently a number of other amendments to this section. I think it is appropriate that we rise.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee of the Whole rise and report that it has not yet concluded its consideration of Committee Recommendation S&E-2.

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 12:55 P.M., the Committee of the Whole rose, and the Convention reconvened.)

(The mace was replaced by the Sergeant-at-Arms.)

PLENARY SESSION

DECEMBER 7, 1967—12:55 P.M.

PRESIDENT H. VERNON ENEY,
PRESIDING

THE PRESIDENT: The Convention will please come to order.

On behalf of the Committee of the Whole, the Chair reports the Committee has had under consideration S&E-2, and it still has it under consideration, and desires leave to sit again.

Resolutions, Mr. Clerk?

Resolution No. 25. The Clerk will read the resolution.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 25, by the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget; A RESOLUTION concerning the Standing Rules of the Convention.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Scanlan for the purpose of moving the suspension of rules and for the purpose of adoption of Resolution No. 25.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I move at this time that the Convention suspend the rules so as to permit consideration of Resolution No. 25 which has just been read across the desk of the Clerk and which has been distributed to all the delegates.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: Since this is a motion for suspension of rules, it requires that the full resolution be read and that there be a record vote.

Will the Clerk read the resolution?

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 25, by the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget.

A RESOLUTION concerning the Standing Rules of the Convention.

WHEREAS, this Convention has heretofore adopted Standing Rules and has from time to time adopted amendments to these rules, and;

WHEREAS the Standing Rules, as amended through November 2, 1967, have been printed and have been distributed to the delegates to this convention, now therefore be it

RESOLVED that the printed edition of the Standing Rules of the Convention distributed this date to the delegates to the Convention, be and are hereby adopted as the official edition of the Standing Rules of the Convention for all purposes of citation as may hereafter arise; provided, however, that the Secretary of the Convention be and is hereby authorized to correct any error in the printed edition of the Standing Rules which may be discovered.

THE PRESIDENT: The question arises on the motion for suspension of rules, to permit the immediate consideration of Resolution No. 25.

Is there discussion?

(There was no response.)

Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: A vote Aye is a vote for the suspension of rules. A vote No is a vote against.
