

that there has been an act of cession. I will try to find this.

I will tell you, in addition to answering one of your questions, that in practically every act of ceding land to the United States, the State has reserved the power to serve civil and criminal process on those Army and Navy reservations.

For example, in the act which ceded Fort Severn, now the Naval Academy, to the Federal Government, Maryland's legislature retained the power to serve civil and criminal process within that federal enclave.

This has been a common and I think almost universal reservation of state power, so that the State in giving its consent to the federal government buying and owning and exercising jurisdiction over the land has retained this concurrent power as far as criminal and civil jurisdiction goes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Storm, your time has expired. Will you please bring the answer to a close as quickly as possible?

DELEGATE STORM: If you have any further question on it, I will be glad to answer that in the hall.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does any delegate desire to speak in opposition to Amendment No. 11?

Delegate Rybczynski.

DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: Mr. Chairman, the Committee was made aware of the fact that there are people who have lived in the State of Maryland for many years but only by virtue of the fact that they happen to live at a place like Perry Point, which is government property, they are not allowed to participate in our government. Despite the fact that they participate in every other way, they are not allowed to vote.

We have remedied that situation, I believe, by the language in our report.

We do not have to worry as to whether it is ceded or not ceded. We did not care if they exercised any jurisdiction. We wanted the people to have the right to vote and they will have it under this amendment.

We hope that you will defeat the amendment and support the report.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any further discussion?

Are you ready for the vote?

(Call for the question.)

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will ring the quorum bell.

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 11 to Committee Recommendation S&E-2.

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of Amendment No. 11. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 19 votes in the affirmative and 85 in the negative, the motion is lost. The amendment is rejected.

Are there any further amendments to section 4? The Chair hears none.

We will come down to section 5. Do you desire to make further presentation, Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: I will be willing to answer questions.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any questions of the Committee Chairman for purposes of clarification with respect to section 5?

The Chair hears none.

Are there any amendments to section 5?

Delegate Key.

DELEGATE KEY: I have an amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is the number?

DELEGATE KEY: AH.

THE CHAIRMAN: The pages will distribute amendment AH. This will be Amendment No. 12.

The Clerk will read the amendment.

READING CLERK: Amendment No. 12 to Committee Recommendation S&E-2 by Delegates Key and Taylor: On page 2, section 5, Disqualification, strike out the last sentence beginning with the word "The" on line 36 and extending through the period on line 40.

THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment is proposed by Delegate Key, and seconded
