

A RESOLUTION concerning a budgetary report on the finances of the Constitutional Convention.

THE PRESIDENT: Resolution No. 13 is referred to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Budget.

Are there any other motions or resolutions?

(There was no response.)

THE PRESIDENT: If not, we will move on to announcements. I have only two.

There has been circulated and should be on your desk a copy of the Rhode Island Constitution, adopted just a short time ago. This is sent to you for information. The copies of the New York Constitution have not yet been received. We hope to have them shortly, and they will be circulated to you.

The motion picture film, "The Mighty Oak," is here. It is available for seeing by delegates at any time. We will schedule several showings, at times and in the place to be announced. Such of you as want to, can go see the film at those times. The room holds comfortably about thirty people, so the entire Convention cannot see it at the same time.

If any of you wants to see the film at any other time, day or night, or if you want to arrange to have the film shown to any groups of any kind in your own neighborhoods at any time, please contact Mrs. Fleury in the Public Information office and she will make the necessary arrangements.

We do not yet have as many copies as we hope to have, but there will be a sufficient number for simultaneous showings. The film runs 28 minutes, and when it is shown here, the projectionist will be provided; if you arrange to have it shown elsewhere, the group that is having the film shown will have to arrange for a projectionist.
