

Committee, and the Legislative Committee. At that time we will hear Dr. Frank Grad of Columbia University. On Thursday and Friday of next week we will continue to hear the delegates who have introduced proposals which have been referred to the Local Government Committee. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Schloeder?

DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: The Suffrage and Elections Committee will meet tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M. to hear Senator Brewster, Delegate Storm and George Allen.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Dulany?

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, there will be a brief meeting of the Committee on Public Information immediately upon adjournment in the lounge, on the opposite side of the television set.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, the Committee on General Provisions is entering into its final phase of the educational matters, that dealing with fiscal problems and the financing of education. We will meet this afternoon about fifteen minutes after the adjournment here. We will hear this afternoon from Dr. Homer Elseroad, Superintendent of Montgomery County Schools, Dr. Paul Henry, Assistant Superintendent for Business and Finance, Mr. Charles Stein, the Budget Department, Dr. Wayne Reid, the Associate Commissioner of the United States Office of Education.

Tomorrow morning we will begin our deliberations at 9:30 A.M., at which time we will hear from Dr. Kern Alexander of the Office of Education, and at 11:00 A.M. we will be privileged to hear from Dr. Lowell Ensor, President of Western Maryland College.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: The Rules Committee will meet Tuesday at 12:00 noon, to take up again Resolution No. 11, and take up various proposed rule changes suggested by Senator Raley's subcommittee. In this connection I invite all the delegates to furnish the committee with any proposals they may have in mind for changes in the rules. Although the Convention retains the power to change the rules up to the very last day, there comes a time when we would like to have the rules, if not printed, at least in a somewhat semi-permanent form; and we would like to put in one collection all the various changes we have made up to now; so I urge you, if you do have some suggestions, try to get them to the committee by the early part of next week.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Schloeder?

DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: Mr. President, I would like to direct this question to you, in your former role as Constitutional Convention Commission Chairman.

Like many others, I have received a copy of a memorandum by Kenneth Lasson, relating to church freedom and the church-state relationship in Maryland. I wonder if you might explain the genesis of this memorandum?

THE PRESIDENT: The memorandum is a research memorandum prepared for the Commission, which will be presented in Volume II, I think it is, of the Commission's Reports. Since that volume is not now printed and will not be printed for some time, and since some of the delegates have seen references to this memorandum and have asked for it, we circulated it to them in this form.

Delegate Clarke?

DELEGATE E. CLARKE: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Convention, I would like to move that from this day forward, and that each day that this Convention is in session, that the reading of one be considered the reading of all of the proposals introduced by Delegate Finch. Is there a second?

(There was no response.)

DELEGATE E. CLARKE: Mr. Chairman, in the interest of freedom of speech, which includes the right of freedom to think and to write, I withdraw my motion.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate White?

DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. President, being a firm believer in the golden rule, which I believe is a good guideline for this Convention and for individuals, I wish to have recorded that I did attend the committee meeting of the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble, and as a result of our very lively and congenial
