We now come to the order of business, motions and resolutions. We have Resolution No. 14. The Clerk will read the resolution.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 14, by Delegate Malkus.

A RESOLUTION concerning the appointment of an historian for the Constitutional Convention.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Resolution No. 14 is referred to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget.

The Chair would like to announce that there has been a request for a roster of Convention personnel. This I think has been circulated previously. Some people have probably lost them or maybe they did not get them. Anyhow, this will be forthcoming on Monday. An attempt will be made to keep it up to date, if there are changes.

Are there any announcements by the committee chairmen?

The Chair recognizes Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: The Committee on the Executive Branch will meet after the session on Monday to hear from Mr. Arthur Marshall, State's Attorney from Prince George's County. On Tuesday morning, at 10:00 A.M., the Committee will hear from Governor Agnew, and we will hold our meeting in the Senate Chamber, right across the hall here.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, the Committee on General Provisions will conclude, hopefully, its deliberations on the educational facets referred to us. Monday before the session we will meet at 1:00 P.M. to hear from Dr. Eugene McLoone, of the School of Education, University of Maryland, then from Mr. Allen Wilner, then from Mr. Marvin Mandel, of the Legislative Council. This will deal with fiscal matters of education. We go into session at 4:00 P.M., and we will continue our deliberations for the rest of the day after we adjourn Monday, but for the time being this is the plan, since we will have no other opportunity to announce to the Convention the schedule of witnesses before we meet on Monday. I thought this would be an opportune time to do it.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative
