

Branch will meet at 2:00 P.M. on Monday to hear from Professor Dixon of George Washington University, and on Monday evening at 7:30 P.M. here in the State House we will begin the first of a series of public meetings, to discuss various phases of the legislative branch.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Style will meet on Monday at 2:30 P.M.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: The Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet at 1:00 P.M. on Monday, hopefully to start on the final phase of making decisions. Thank you.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble will meet Monday at 2:00 P.M. I would like to call attention to the fact that that night at 7:30 P.M., we will have a public hearing involving, again, due process, equal protection, and rights of the poor. A number of organizations and individual people have asked to be heard. Anybody who would like to be heard, please register with the Administrative Assistant of our Committee so that we can make room on the program for you. The hearing will be in the Senate Chamber.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch, from the announcements today, obviously the hardest working day, will meet at 3:00 P.M. on the matter of orphans' courts, and at that time, we will hear from the judges of the orphans' court of Baltimore City, Prince George's County and Baltimore County. On Monday, we resume hearings at 1:00 P.M., at which time we will consider Delegate Proposal No. 236 having to do with creating the tax court as a constitutional court, and our hearings that day will continue before the session time. Thank you.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, not to upstage the Judiciary Committee nor to show that the Judiciary Committee, like the courts, can often be wrong: the Committee on Rules will meet very briefly following the session to receive an important communication from the Secretary of the Convention. The meeting will be very brief, and it is of utmost importance.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: The Committee on State Finance and Taxation will continue its meetings. The schedules are being posted. Next week, Tuesday at 10:00 A.M., proposals introduced by Delegate Storm and Delegate Finch will be heard. On Wednesday, October 11 at 10:00 A.M., there will be a public hearing on the subject of lottery.

If you have any interest in these yourselves, or if others do, we would like you to come to the meeting, or to write giving your views. On Thursday, at 10:00 A.M., we will hear from school officials and other interested parties on the subject of the mandatory provisions in the budget relating to the school budget.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will next meet at 12:30 P.M. on Monday, at which time there will be a hearing on Delegate Proposal No. 50 relating to Baltimore City districts, and at 1:00 P.M., we are scheduling a hearing on Proposal No. 111, relating to mandatory districting of county councils. At 2:30 P.M., there are scheduled for hearing a number of delegate proposals dealing with interstate and intrastate compacts, including 10, 189, 231, 232, and 242, which is referred to another committee, but relates to the same subject.

I think most of these have been introduced by Delegate Finch, and this will serve notice that with respect to Proposal No. 288, which he introduced a few days ago, and also those proposals that have come in through today, that this will afford him an opportunity to be heard by this committee.

At 7:00 P.M., the Local Government Committee will hear from Mr. Robert Doyle, the Director of the Division of Planning Assistance of the Office of Metropolitan Development; and at 8:00 P.M., from Mrs. Jean Ross, of the Montgomery County Committee for public schools.

THE FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany?

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information will
