Are there any motions and resolutions?

(There was no response.)

If not, I have a few announcements to make. The cloth bound copies of the final report of the Constitutional Convention Commission are being distributed today. Each copy is imprinted with the name of the delegate. Please be sure that you have the copy bearing your name. If you have someone else's copy, please exchange it with him. The name is imprinted in the lower right corner of the outside cover.

Some time ago several delegates requested that there be made available to the convention delegates a report of the Committee on Judicial Administration of the Maryland State Bar Association, the Chairman of which was Delegate Richard W. Case. Because the report bears on some of the recommendations of the Constitutional Convention Commission dealing with the article on the judicial branch, we tried to obtain sufficient copies of the report to circulate among the delegates. Only a half dozen of the reports were available so that we have reproduced it by duplicating it. You should have it on your desk now. It is in a yellow cover.

I announced on Friday that the roster of Convention personnel, which was heretofore made available to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget, would be distributed to all delegates today. Unfortunately a mistake was made in duplicating the roster and it is not available to you this afternoon. It will be on your desks tomorrow.

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Vecera?

DELEGATE VECERA: Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of the Convention, I would like to present at this time and recommend adoption of the first favorable report of the Committee.

On Tuesday, October 17, 1967, immediately subsequent to the adjournment of our session here, we plan a cruise on the Port Welcome leaving Annapolis for Baltimore Harbor or thereabouts. There will be ample food and music, the price is $5 per person,
