

payable by check, please, to Miss Susan McCaffray in the Secretary's office.

Spouses of delegates are invited and the Convention staff is invited; also the working press. Please get your money in as soon as possible if it is approved here today.

The Committee would also like publicly to thank Delegate Rush for his suggestions and efforts in this committee and also would like especially to thank Delegate Sosnowski for his special help in obtaining the Port Welcome.

We would also like to thank the Port Authority for their generosity in making the boat available because $5 covers the entire thing.

I will have tickets printed upon the adoption of the idea by the people of the Convention. I think we are going to make it mandatory that you display these tickets when you board the ship.

Any donations from delegates with respect to food or beverages, perhaps oysters from the Eastern Shore Delegation, we will be glad to accept.

I am trying to plan a formal affair with a dance. Some of you suggested this. We are still in the process of working on this particular aspect. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Vecera, would you restate the date and hours and place.

DELEGATE VECERA: The date is October 17, 3:00 P.M., immediately after the adjournment of our session here. The trip will take approximately six hours. I am still working this out with Mrs. Johns. It will dock back here in Annapolis. Our spouses can meet us here or go aboard ship while we are working in the Convention.

THE PRESIDENT: We leave at the dock down near the Yacht Club in Annapolis.

DELEGATE VECERA: Yes, Mr. President, and will return here.

THE PRESIDENT: I take it no formal action with respect to this report is necessary. In the absence of objection, I will accept the report and consider it approved.

It is so ordered.

Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch is going to meet right after this session here today to hear from the State's Attorney of Prince George's County. Tomorrow morning in the Senate Chamber across the hall we will hear from Governor Agnew. Then on Wednesday, starting at 9:30 A.M., we will hear during the course of the day from most of the state's attorneys throughout the State. We designated that as State's Attorneys Day.

On the following day, namely, Thursday, at 11:00 A.M., we will hear from former Governor Driscoll of New Jersey.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch resumes its hearings tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. at which time we have the pleasure of hearing from Judge Shearin of Montgomery County. At 11:00 A.M. we have Mr. Glenn R. Winters, of the American Judicature Society to appear before our committee and at noon Honorable James A. Wise, State's Attorney for Caroline County. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble will meet immediately after this meeting at 7:30 P.M. this evening, there will be a public hearing in the basement of the Shaw House on due process, equal protection and the rights of the poor to which everyone is invited. The following people will speak for themselves or for specific groups. Brian Glick, Esquire, Acting Director for Center for Social Welfare Law, Columbia University Law School, New York City. Parren Mitchell, Director of Community Action Agency of Baltimore, Walter Lively, Director of U.J.O.I.N., Daniel Gant, Director of Target City, C.O.R.E., Walter W. Black, State Director of Branches, Maryland N.A.A.C.P., Community Action Agency-Neighborhood residents, and George Washington Williams.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Committee on Rules will meet at noon tomorrow to consider Resolution No. 11 and I invite the sponsor of the resolution to appear before the Committee as the Committee intends to take action on it tomorrow.

At the conclusion of the session tomorrow, we will have an open public hearing on the proposed convention budget which hearing also will embrace Resolution No. 13 proposed by Delegate Malkus.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.