

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will continue its hearings tomorrow at 10:00 A.M. All delegate proposals before this committee are being scheduled for hearing. All sponsors are receiving notification. We want to be able to have the sponsors at least heard by the end of next week so that all matters before this committee can then be debated within the committee and reports sent to the floor or, where they are completely unfavorable, finally disposed of before the committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information will meet today 15 minutes after adjournment, in the Baltimore City Delegation Room in the Shaw House.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet approximately 15 minutes after this session to hear from Delegate Werner Fornos in connection with one of his proposals and tonight at 7:45 P.M. to take up the general question of apportionment of the number of legislators for districts and meet again tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, the Committee on General Provisions will continue its deliberations by hearing from some scheduled witnesses this afternoon at 5:00 P.M. We will hear from Senator and our esteemed Second Vice-President William James. We will adjourn for dinner and then at 7:00 P.M. will hear from Mr. Michael Eisenberg, representing the Judicial Community Council of Washington. After that we will hear from some representatives of the Seventh Day Adventists who have requested to be heard. Tomorrow and Wednesday we avoided having any scheduled witnesses so we can at least preliminarily explore and investigate our own thoughts on education from many valuable contributions made by witnesses to date.

May I suggest to the Committee although our first scheduled meeting does not begin until 5:00 P.M., may I request you return to our headquarters as soon as possible. We have some internal affairs to take up before the witnesses. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene at 7:00 P.M. this evening. The subject will be federal-state interrelationship and with us will be Mr. Robert Doyle, who is director of the Division of Planning Assistance, Office of Metropolitan Development, Housing and Urban Development. Later this evening we will have Mrs. Ross of the Montgomery County Committee for Public Schools.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements?
