

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss.

DELEGATE KOSS: The Committee on Suffrage and Elections will reconvene ten minutes after adjournment this afternoon to hear additional testimony on the voting age and continue our deliberation and decisions on referendum. We will meet again tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and we will hear testimony on the inclusion of the right to vote. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately following the adjournment of this session to hear the State's Attorney of Prince George's County.

Tomorrow morning we will meet at 9:30 A.M. to hear state's attorneys from various parts of the State. Most of the state's attorneys will be present tomorrow morning. We start at 9:30 A.M. tomorrow morning.

On Thursday at 10:45 A.M. we will hear from former Governor Driscoll of New Jersey.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble has today been covering several proposals dealing with the right to bear arms. A few minutes after this meeting adjourns we will reconvene and continue our hearings and discussion on this subject.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch reconvenes today at 3:00 P.M., at which time we have a rather important conference. Tomorrow morning we begin our hearings again at 10:00 A.M., at which time we have the honor of hearing from Honorable James Clark, Vice-President of the Convention, regarding Delegate Proposal No. 81 and particularly its application to the courts of limited jurisdiction.

At 11:00 A.M. we have the honor of hearing from Governor J. Millard Tawes with reference to appointment and judicial selection.

At 12:00 noon we have scheduled a hearing for Delegate Proposals No. 209, 210, and 307, all proposed by Delegate

Finch, who will be invited to appear before our Committee at that time. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will hear tomorrow the visitors on the subject of lottery.

Thereafter each day we are setting down three, four, five, six, and some days seven and eight proposals. We want to assure all those who have introduced these proposals that they will be given all the time they need. But we find by reason of cancellations and other events that occur that the only way we can clean up our docket is to put them in and hope they will come over and discuss these proposals so that we can act on them.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene 15 minutes after this session.

Tomorrow the Committee on Local Government will meet jointly with the Legislative Branch Committee. That meeting will be held not at our office or theirs, but in the assembly room of the State Office Building. The witnesses from whom we will jointly hear at that time are Dr. Frank Grad of Columbia University, Dr. Carl Everstine, Bennett Crain, the County Solicitor for Anne Arundel County, Mr. William Marbury, Special Counsel for Baltimore City.

The subject matter of that hearing, which will also continue after the convention session that afternoon, is the shared powers-expressed powers concepts, limitations on legislative power, particularly with regard to local legislation, the relationship of the General Assembly to counties and cities, and other similar matters.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements? Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet ten minutes after this session concludes this afternoon. Tomorrow morning we will meet at 9:00 A.M. to hear testimony from United States Senator Joseph Tydings. Thereafter we will join with the Committee on Local Government in the joint hearings which Delegate Moser has just announced.

We also have an evening session tomorrow night at 8:00 P.M.
