

The schedule of the Committee for tomorrow is as follows. From 9:00 to 10:30 A.M. we have scheduled hearings on Delegate Proposal 113, 126, 181, 226, and 311, many of which are duplicates, all dealing generally with the application of referenda in the field of local government.

From 10:30 A.M. to noon we have scheduled hearings on Delegate Proposals 107, 220, and 310, relating to municipal corporations.

A special order of business before the Committee at 9:00 A.M. tomorrow will be action on Delegate Proposal No. 50, a hearing upon which was held earlier this week.

After the general session tomorrow, at 3:00 P.M., we will hear from Dr. Franklin Burdette with respect to the general law and residual powers problems we are also investigating today.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Committee on State Finance and Taxation will meet immediately after this session. We will reconvene tomorrow at 10:00 A.M. to take up that aspect of the proposals dealing with mandatory provision for the school budgets. Those who are interested, including the public, are urged to attend. We have invited certain officials from the schools to be there.

Everybody else who is interested, including the delegates, are also welcome to appear.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble concluded this morning its general hearings on due process and equal protection, with a very successful appearance of Mr. Joseph Rauh of Washington, D.C. There will be a few other odds and ends to clear up in connection with this subject but starting this afternoon at 3:00 P.M. the committee will begin to hear from people on wire tapping, rights of privacy, et cetera. We have a special person coming from Washington, Mr. Brian Gettings, at 3:00 P.M. However, I would ask the committee members to assemble as quickly as possible after this meeting because Mr. Charles Moylan, Assistant Attorney of Baltimore City, is here and would like to talk to the Committee about certain aspects of wire tapping.

Tomorrow morning the committee begins hearings on the subjects of freedom of expression and the right to know. These hearings will start promptly at 9:30 A.M. tomorrow morning because of the large number of witnesses, many of whom are from out of town. In order to accommodate them, this hearing will start 9:30 A.M. tomorrow morning.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee on General Provisions has for the last several days been discussing in committee session aspects of education. We will meet again this afternoon immediately after this Convention adjourns so that we can continue our deliberations in this field.

Tomorrow morning and Friday we will start deliberations on a new subject, that of militia. During this two-day interim we will be hearing from General Gelston, General Ogletree, and General Reckord. We will also be hearing from State Police, Mr. Robert Lally, representative from the Governor's office, and probably Attorney General Burch.

Next week we will be like the Committee on Suffrage and Elections, extending invitations to each of the individual delegates to appear before us as the proponent of the proposals they have submitted and referred to our committee. This is just a general broad outline of where we are and where we are going. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements? Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

THE PRESIDENT: 3:00 or 3:30 P.M.?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: 3:00 P.M., or if it is inconvenient for you, we can wait until 3:30 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT: You are waiting for the budget analyst.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: The Committee will meet at 3:30 P.M. to consider the convention budget and take up Resolution No. 13, the meeting place will be in the Baltimore City Delegation Room in the basement of the Shaw House.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: In view of the announcement of Mr. Moser about the possibility of the availability of Mr. Grad earlier than 5:00 P.M., I would ask that the Committee on Style meet at 4:30 P.M. in its regular meeting room. Thank you.
