DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Again the only changes that have been made are to take into account the discussion on the floor. There was a question from Delegate Fornos to Delegate Sherbow with respect to the manner of selection of the principal officer, and it was stated by Delegate Sherbow that to be appointed meant to be elected, so we put in the word "elected." We left there the man to be elected and to be also responsible to the General Assembly.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any amendments as to style? The Chair has received none.

If not, the question arises on the approval of the recommendations of the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement, and adoption of the amendments by the Committee.

Is there any discussion?
