

that if said schedule is not rejected by the General Assembly within thirty days, it shall have the force of law at the first pay period following the next general election.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 363 is referred to the Committee on General Provisions.

Delegate Proposal No. 364. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 364, by Delegate Wheatley. Title,

A PROPOSAL that the relationship between the General Assembly and the governor in the preparation of the state budget be expanded to allow the General Assembly to obtain more adequate information in the budget's formative stage prior to the governor's budget message.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 364 is referred to the Committee on State Finance and Taxation.

Next on the agenda is motions and resolutions. Are there any motions or resolutions?

(There was no response.)

I have no announcements. Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will convene ten minutes after the adjournment of this afternoon's plenary session and will meet again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: The Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet ten minutes after the close of this session to hear Messrs. J. Cookman Boyd, Jr., W. Orville Wright, and James J. Doyle, legislative aides, who are testifying today. We are meeting tomorrow beginning 9:30 A.M. The committee will meet this evening at 7:45 P.M. in H-8 to consider such testimony as the public may have with respect to a unicameral and bicameral General Assembly.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information wishes to report the score is now seven to one, top of the eighth, in favor of the Cards. The Committee on Public Information will meet tomorrow at 1:15 P.M. in Room H-18 to consider Resolution No. 3.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch will meet again this afternoon at 3:00 P.M. and tomorrow morning we resume hearings on delegate proposals beginning at 10:00 A.M. on Delegate Proposal 219 introduced by Delegate Kirkland having to do with clerks of court. At 11:00 A.M. we hear from Delegate Grant of Garrett County regarding courts of limited jurisdiction. At 12:00 noon we consider Delegate Proposal No. 272.

Our formal hearings with witnesses will be concluded tomorrow with the final witness being Rignal W. Baldwin of the Maryland Bar Association at 3:00 P.M. Tomorrow concludes our formal hearings except for the public hearing Monday evening 7:30 P.M. in the Shaw House previously announced at which all delegates and their constituents will be welcome. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet ten minutes after adjournment of this session to discuss procedural matters in connection with our decision-making process.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will continue its hearings tomorrow morning on a number of proposals. We are acting on them and filing our memoranda with the Clerk. If there are members of the Constitutional Convention who have views that they want us to obtain from them on the subjects that we have been holding hearings on, we urge you to get them in promptly because beginning next week, we are going to hold our debates and begin reporting these matters out on the floor. If you have any views, please let us have them from you promptly.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble has been holding hearings this morning on the right to know and freedom of expression. These were held in the Senate Chamber. They will continue as soon as you and the officers finish interviewing these press people at the same place. This afternoon we will hear from George Delaplaine, Jr., Editor and Publisher of the Frederick News and Post and Francis Porter from the Washington Daily News.