

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Kiefer?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble will meet for just a few minutes immediately after this meeting. On Monday we will have a hearing on various proposals submitted by Delegate Finch, I think there are thirty-four of them, starting promptly at 2:00 P.M. At 7:30 P.M. this evening we have coming Mr. Bernard Fensterwald, Chief Counsel of the Subcommittee on Administration Practice and Procedure in the United States Senate, to talk on eavesdropping. He will bring with him a number of devices that may be of interest to people. Delegates may want to hear him and see these devices.

On Tuesday the committee begins its hearings on religious freedom. This will start in the morning and will continue with time out for those who want to go on the boat ride but with a scheduled public hearing Tuesday night about 7:30 P.M. I am certain that the boat will be back by that time.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch will reconvene at 3:00 P.M. this afternoon at which time we have the honor and privilege of hearing from Rignal Baldwin, President, Maryland State Bar Association. We resume our hearings on Monday beginning at 1:00 P.M. with Judge Shure of Montgomery County, and at 2:00 P.M. Mr. Paul Schlitz, Director of the Legal Aid Bureau. Except for hearings on delegate proposals, we will conclude our public hearings with the meeting of citizens and general public on Monday at 7:30 P.M. in the Shaw House.

Again may I invite delegates who may have some views on the matter before our committee to be with us at 7:30 P.M. Monday evening as well as any of their constituents who may be interested in matters before the Judicial Committee. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, this morning the Committee on the Executive Branch made certain tentative decisions to provide for a lieutenant governor. On Monday immediately after the session, we will either continue our discussion—and that's the discussion of the problem of when the governor-elect should take office—or we will hear from State Senator Steffey, who has requested the right to appear before our committee.

On Tuesday morning at 10:00 A.M. we will have a joint meeting with the Committee on the Legislative Branch to try to resolve certain matters of joint concern to both committees.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, I would like to announce that the Committee on Style meets on Monday at 2:00 P.M., but I would also like to ask them to come this afternoon immediately after this session for a five or ten minute meeting of the committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, and ladies and gentlemen: The Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet briefly, immediately after the session today to hear from one additional legislative representative. We will meet Monday at 2:00 P.M. to hear testimony regarding percentage of turnover in the legislature caused by death, resignation, and otherwise, and again Monday evening at 7:45 P.M.

I am pleased to announce, Mr. President, that the administrative assistant of the Committee on the Legislative Branch, upon whom fatherhood was first conferred about ten days ago now finds he has a profession as well as paternity. Mr. Richard O. Berndt has passed the bar and we have one more member of the legal profession in our midst. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, I am very pleased to announce your Committee on General Provisions has completed its scheduled witnesses today. Beginning Monday we will hear from the individual delegates who have proposals that have been referred to our committee and invitations have been extended to each of you. So we will be looking forward to seeing you as a proponent of your proposals on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Local Government Committee will next
