

fied amendment on the committee proposal. Let me explain how I am going to amend, and then we can state it in the proper language.

I intend to move to strike only that portion of the committee proposal that begins with the word "all" on line 35 of page 2 through line 9 of page 3. In other words, my amendment now, if permitted to be modified, would not be directed at the first sentence of section 3.17(ab).

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is completely lost. Are you suggesting an entirely new amendment in place of your Amendment No. 3, or are you modifying your Amendment No. 3?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I am trying to modify my Amendment No. 3.

THE CHAIRMAN: Tell me what language there would be deleted, or changed.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Strike out all of line 35, beginning with the word "all".

THE CHAIRMAN: There is no line 35 on my amendment 3.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Oh, I will read my amendment as modified:

On pages 2 and 3, section 3.17(ab), Corporation Charters, strike out all of line 35, beginning with the word "all" through line 50 inclusive —" and then it remains the same.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is still lost. What happens to lines 6, 7 and 8 of Amendment No. 3?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I did not finish reading. I'm sorry. "— and insert in lieu thereof the following: "The provisions of Article III, section 48 of the Constitution of 1867 shall remain in effect as part of this Constitution."

In short, my modification is —

THE CHAIRMAN: You are striking through line 50 on page 2, and not striking anything on page 3?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I see here that the amendment as drafted referred to pages 1 and 2, when it should have referred to pages 2 and 3, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, I understand that. But you did not make mention of any of the lines on page 3.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I thought I had. My bench mate says I did. Perhaps the Chair did not catch it.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is entirely possible.

(Laughter.)

DELEGATE JAMES: The first time you did. The second time you did not.

THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second. Would your amendment now read "On pages 2 and 3, section 3.17(ab) Corporate Charters in line 35 strike out the words "all charters granted" and strike out all of lines 36 through 50 on page 2, and all of lines 1 through 9 on page 3, and insert in lieu thereof the following —?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: That is correct, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any objection to considering the amendment as modified?

(Laughter.)

There appears to be an objection, Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: In which case, then, Mr. Chairman, I will stand on my original amendment and hope in some way if the amendment passes that the change which I was trying to make could be made.

I was trying to accommodate the section pointed out by Mr. Case, where the previous reference to municipalities was improper.

DELEGATE KOSS: May I point out that under the accommodation he was attempting it seems to me that the first sentence would be repeated twice, since you were not striking it, and then incorporating section 48.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I think at this point I had better retreat, and recast my language, but I shall return.

(Laughter.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Do you withdraw your amendment, Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Yes, I would like to keep open the door that has been so liberally left ajar for others so that I could come back with my amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would like to conclude consideration of this before we recess for lunch, if you could work out the language.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I could do it right here, but I do not know about the boys in my row.
