

Blair Lee, and tomorrow morning beginning at 9:30 A.M. will hear a series of witnesses.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany?

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information wishes to announce that Frank C. Robey was elected vice-chairman.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you. Are there any other announcements? Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch will reconvene fifteen minutes after this session concludes, and at 3:30 P.M. today we will hear from Delegate Finch regarding his Proposals 255 and 268. We will meet again tomorrow morning, beginning at 10:00 A.M., at which time we will hear from Delegate Bennett on his Proposal No. 381, and at 11:00 A.M., we will hear from representatives of the Baltimore County Bar Association. We are continuing our deliberations and discussions on the matter of court structure and hopefully will reach some tentative decisions in that regard, at least by the end of business tomorrow. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will meet fifteen minutes after the close of this session for further discussions of pending proposals. We will meet again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. Those who have proposed certain matters have been invited to attend. We hope that they will be there so that we may continue the discussions on those proposals and proceed to vote on them.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble will meet immediately after this meeting to consider further matters that we have been discussing. Tomorrow morning is labor day for the Committee. Hearings will be held in the Senate Chamber, starting at 10:00 A.M. promptly on these proposals relating to rights to work, rights of labor, et cetera. Anybody who would like to come is invited.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene fifteen minutes after the session. The subject of our deliberations and discussions continues to be units of county government and municipalities, and hopefully we will continue on to the subject of limitations on local legislation later in the afternoon, and when we convene tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, as I announced yesterday, the Committee on the Executive Branch last week determined to use the commission draft as a basis of its consideration of all the various issues before the Committee. The Committee will meet this afternoon right after this session, and we will consider sections 4.05, 4.12, 4.13, 4.23 and 4.24 of the commission draft.

There are several matters before our committee which are presently in subcommittee, and the committee is awaiting for the subcommittees to report. I am hopeful that tomorrow morning the committee will have one or two reports from the subcommittees, but if it does not, I am hopeful that the committee can take up the question of the state's attorneys.

THE PRESIDENT: Any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, the Rules Committee will meet tomorrow at 12:00 noon to conclude our discussion, in an attempt to reach agreement on a proposed rule regarding the requirement that amendments to committee recommendations be printed and distributed to the delegates when the debates in the Committee of the Whole are reached. This is a matter of some importance and any delegate who is interested is invited to attend.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee on General Provisions is sailing along very smoothly in the sea of hearing individual delegate proposals. I would only respectfully request, that those delegates who have proposals referred to our committee, try to arrange their schedules to appear before us as proponents of your proposals with deliberate speed, because we are trying to sandwich in discussions on several other items before us.

We will continue after today, and probably on into tonight as long as necessary to accommodate those delegates who may wish to be heard, but I would respectfully again request you to try to arrange your
