

jourment of this session to resume our discussion of that matter.

I have been informed already by a majority of my committee that depending upon what is accomplished this evening, I will then be instructed whether to call the Committee together again tomorrow or early Monday morning.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will meet again at 12:30 P.M. on Monday. The subject for deliberation at that time will be multi-county units of government, county boundaries, and we will return once again to municipalities and the interrelationship of municipalities to counties and to the state.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately after the session on Monday to consider and dispose of the issue of the governor's appointive power, the reorganization authority and the veto power of the governor.

Beginning on Tuesday morning at 9:30 A.M., we will dispose of some of the big issues before our committee, namely, whether we shall have an appointed or elected attorney general, whether the comptroller shall be appointed or elected, whether the board of public works shall be continued as a constitutional office, and what to do about the state treasurer.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Style will meet at 2:00 P.M. on Monday.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet at 11:30 A.M. on Monday.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet at 2:00 P.M. on Monday afternoon, and night meetings next week will be on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:45 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee on General Provisions has virtually completed hearings on all matters referred to us; beginning the first part of the week we will commence deliberations and discussions so that we can hopefully report out to the Convention our first recommendation the latter part of next week. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation has practically concluded the hearings on the various proposals, and we are debating those that are now before us. We will continue doing so until we make our reports to the Convention.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, the Rules Committee will meet at 3:00 P.M. on Monday.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Are there any other announcements?

(There was no response.)

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any delegates present now who were not present at roll call who desire to indicate their presence?

DELEGATE LINTON: Mr. President, I would like to record my presence.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other delegates present now, who were absent during roll call, who desire to record their presence? If not, the Chair recognizes Delegate Powers, Chairman of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I am happy to announce that on Sunday Delegate Marvin I. Singer will be celebrating a birthday. I am told he will then be a very old thirty-five. I move we adjourn until 4:00 P.M. Monday.

THE PRESIDENT: All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 2:17 P.M., the Convention adjourned to reconvene at 4:00 P.M. on Monday, October 23, 1967.)

PLENARY SESSION

OCTOBER 23, 1967—4:00 P.M.

PRESIDENT H. VERNON ENEY,
