

be shown for any who care to see it at the same time each day this week other than Friday. In other words, tomorrow, Wednesday, and Thursday, 15 minutes after the adjournment of the session the film will be shown in room S-9 of the Court of Appeals Building in the basement.

The delegates other than those on the Committee on General Provisions are free to attend the session this afternoon, the only limitation being the size of the room which will not hold a great many more than the number on that committee.

The script of this film was received today. It is being duplicated and should be finished tomorrow and if so, will be placed on your desks in the chamber.

The bouquet on the rostrum today is here again through the courtesy of Delegate Dorothy Scott Murray. Thank her very much. (Applause.)

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Personal Rights and the Preamble has been discussing labor rights this afternoon. We will proceed this afternoon after this meeting to continue discussion on other areas and this evening hopefully to get to the subject of freedom of religion as announced.

Tomorrow we will have a hearing promptly at 10:00 A.M. on immunity to suit of government and charitable institutions and thereafter continue our discussion.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will meet immediately after this meeting and will continue its discussions. Tomorrow morning we will convene again to discuss the state budget, the bond issues and assessments.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch has been considering since 1:00 P.M. today the matter of chief judges of the court system and their administrative functions. We convene 15 minutes after adjournment of this plenary session to resume those discussions and convene again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene to continue its deliberations at 7:00 P.M. this evening. It will convene tomorrow morning at 9:00 A.M. to hear from Senator John Bishop of Baltimore County, at 9:20 A.M. Congressman Gilbert Gude is scheduled to appear. At 10:00 A.M. there are hearings scheduled on Delegate Proposals 397 and 399 and this also encompasses 111. These relate to requirements that certain counties shall have districts for representation on the county councils and was the subject of a previous hearing. We are scheduling these times to afford those proponents of 397 and 399 who may wish to appear before the committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately after today's session to take up the veto power of the governor, the organization and reorganization of the executive branch of the government, and any limitations on the governor's appointive power. We will then proceed to consider the question of the appointive or elective attorney general, the manner of appointment of the state treasurer, the election or appointment of the comptroller, and the continuation of the Board of Public Works as a constitutional office.

Delegate Sherbow is going to appear before the committee immediately after this session to discuss the reorganization power and the Curlett Commission report.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet briefly after the session this afternoon. Tonight members of the committee together with representatives of other committees will meet in Randallstown in the public library in Baltimore County. The committee will meet tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M. We will also have night sessions this week on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections met this morning and hopefully concluded our discussion and decision on the referendum part of our responsibilities. We will reconvene tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. proceeding to make decisions on all qualifications other than age.