

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, before I make announcements, I wonder if I could address a question to Judge Powers, Chairman of the Calendar.

THE PRESIDENT: Go ahead.

DELEGATE BOYER: Judge, is there any thought perhaps to showing "The Mighty Oak" to the entire convention after the session one particular day.

DELEGATE POWERS: In answer to that question, a member of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda, Delegate Clark, made that suggestion. I proposed to take it up so we can have the question answered.

THE PRESIDENT: The difficulty about it is the only two places that we now know of where the projector and screen are available are in rooms that are not large enough for the entire Convention. If we could get a large enough room, it would be much easier.

DELEGATE BOYER: The reason I asked is I was taken by surprise by your announcement, and I just wanted to clarify if there is some thought that perhaps if this might be shown to the entire Convention, we would save duplication by showing it to the General Provisions Committee this afternoon. It has been the thought of the committee that a lot of our constituents have been inquiring about it and what the theme is and format. We thought we could best answer it by viewing it ourselves so we could intelligently answer their questions.

I hate to scrub out your announcement, but I would prefer at this stage of the game to return to our committee room immediately after the session and take up discussion of some matters before us, and we will try to fill in the showing to the General Provisions Committee of "The Mighty Oak," at a later date.

THE PRESIDENT: That is all right. The memorandum sent to my office today was that your committee would still be there. The film will still be shown 15 minutes after this session for whatever delegates have the time and inclination to see it.

DELEGATE BOYER: Thank you. The General Provisions Committee will meet immediately after the session in the Jeffrey Building for discussion purposes.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Vecera.

DELEGATE VECERA: Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Convention, several delegates requested some information regarding facilities at the Naval Academy. I therefore wrote to Admiral Kauffman and received a reply. May I read in part, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: I did not catch the last part.

DELEGATE VECERA: May I read in part the letter that concerns the delegates' request? May I read it, Mr. President?

THE PRESIDENT: Go ahead.

DELEGATE VECERA: Admiral Kauffman states: We are unable to make gym facilities available for ladies. Arrangements can be made on an informal basis by gentlemen delegates to work out at times which will not interfere with the midshipmen's education and training. Delegates desiring to make such arrangements may call Commander J. S. Donaldson, or Professor A. J. Rubino on Extension 430 at the Naval Academy. Some delegates wanted to work out. In line with that if they understand the terminology, they may see me at any time and I will give them in writing the extension number, Extension 430.

May the entertainment committee please have a brief meeting around my desk immediately after this session.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen?

DELEGATE MOSNER: I cannot announce the apprehension of the robbers who robbed our bank of $114,000 last Friday, but the F.B.I. is working on it. I would, however, like to announce I have the rare privilege of announcing—and I say rare because this thing will never happen again to the two principals involved—the announcement is that the very able Chairman of our Finance and Taxation Committee, Honorable Joseph Sherbow and his very lovely wife gave birth to a lovely, I mean (laughter) I mean celebrated their forty-fifth wedding anniversary yesterday. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Bradshaw.

DELEGATE BRADSHAW: Mr. President, I wish to announce the presence in the gallery immediately facing the rostrum of approximately thirty members of the Teenage Republican Club of Montgomery County accompanied by Miss Carol Rogers. (Applause.)
