THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 408 is referred to the Committee on General Provisions.

Next item on the calendar is motions and resolutions. Resolution No. 18. The Clerk will read the resolution.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 18, by Delegates Kirkland, Sosnowski, and Vecera.

A RESOLUTION that each delegate shall have only one vote on only one substantive committee and matters generally relating thereto, to read as follows.

THE PRESIDENT: Resolution No. 18 is referred to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget. Delegate Rybczynski

DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: In reviewing Resolution No. 18, and noting the significance of the resolution to the actions within our own committee, and probably other committees of this Convention, I would strongly recommend to the Chair that rather than refer this matter to the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget, that it be referred to the Committee of the Whole, since it requires no technical discussion whatsoever, no research, but will simply cause double argument. That is, in the committee, and then repeat the same argument back out here on the floor.

Immediately this afternoon after this plenary session, there will be occasion when
