

Delegate Powers will shortly move for adjournment until noon tomorrow. This will give you until noon to prepare amendments with respect to all reports other than those which you have heretofore received.

The Chair assumes that any amendments desired with respect to Committee Recommendations R&P-1 and R&P-2 have already been prepared. They will be the first items on the agenda at noon tomorrow. They will be followed by Committee Recommendations JB-3, EB-1 and 2, LB-1, 2 and 3, and then the various "GP" recommendations in that order.

Delegate James.

DELEGATE JAMES: Will you repeat that, please. I would like to write it down.

THE PRESIDENT: The agenda will start with the consideration of Committee Recommendations R&P-1 and R&P-2. Following that will be Committee Recommendation JB-2. Following that will be Committee Recommendation EB-1 and EB-2. Following that will be Legislative Branch Recommendations LB-1, LB-2 and LB-3. Following that will be a long series of short recommendations of the Committee on General Provisions. These will include all provisions in the Constitution proper, not including the schedule of transitional provisions.

For what purpose does Delegate Kiefer rise?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, we did not consider R&P-1 and R&P-2, I understand, because there was to be a corrected report, and we have not seen that corrected report.

Can you give us some light on that?

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair was in error in stating that the report would be reprinted. There were several corrections, but they can be made orally. They are only to change the word "provide" to "prescribe" and I think one typographical error. The report which had to be reprinted was the one which we have just considered.

Any announcements necessary to be made by the committee chairmen?

Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, I again would like to remind committee members of General Provisions that there will be a very important meeting tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M. in committee headquarters.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information will meet tomorrow morning at 11:00 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Can the Chair advise whether the schedule for committee pictures is as circulated for tomorrow?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany, do you happen to know what the picture schedule is? Does the meeting at 12:00 noon interfere with any of them?

DELEGATE DULANY: I think the picture schedule can be rearranged without any difficulty. Perhaps we can notify the committee chairmen the first thing in the morning.

THE PRESIDENT: We will endeavor to do that. We would like to complete the pictures tomorrow morning if possible.

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: There will be a meeting of the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement at 11:30 A.M. tomorrow.

THE PRESIDENT: They are taking a vacation.

Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: May I ask all members of the Committee on Judicial Branch to assemble in room H-9 at 11:30 A.M. tomorrow morning?

THE PRESIDENT: Any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: Since so many pictures have been scheduled around noon or shortly thereafter, perhaps we can have the photographer in the building from 11:30 A.M. until noon, and if the committee members will be available we can arrange to have the pictures taken between 11:30 A.M. and noon, and I will contact the committee chairmen to set up a schedule with them.

THE PRESIDENT: Any other announcements?

Delegate Needle.

DELEGATE NEEDLE: Mr. President, I rise to a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.
